Foreword

Through the years, B.V.H.S. has provided the setting and atmosphere necessary to educate the students to get along in a society. The school has given us a chance to learn, a chance to grow, and a chance to discover the unique person each of us is. Many years from now we may look back and like to thank the people who have tried their hardest to help, but also, several years from now we might like to rekindle the memories of our school years. Through this edition of Echo, we, the staff, hope it reminds you of how it was.

DEDICATION 79

Mrs. Eleanor Sebulsky

We, the Echo staff, dedicate this book to Mrs. Sebulsky, as a small way of showing how much we appreciated all she did for us during the many years she served as the school nurse.

We, the class of 1979 of Blacklick Valley High School, being of sound mind and body and in good spirits -- do hereby make, execute, publish, and declare this our last will and testament, in the manner following:

Bryan Adams wills Sharon Divido his ability to be friends with Eric Hakanen and also Buckwheat my athletic ability in all sports. Denise Anderson wills to Wendy and Bettie the ability to find someone as nice as Don; to Carl and Duane she wills rides to the "Ace's, Glass Diamond." Mike Bender wills his nickname "GOAT" to Frankie Gongloff. Natalie Boback wills the ability to get crazy at parties to Jennifer James, Shelly Sped, and Patty Paraquot but they better be home by 12:00 or the little "PIGS" will get them. Have fun girls. Mary Bober wills to her sister, Kathy Bober, and Lori O'Farrell the ability to go through their last year of school without Tim and Bob. Susan Boring wills her fun and fantastic time up at Vo-Tech to Connie. John Busch wills Barb Whinnie the ability to walk the path to school for 3 more years. Bob Bzdyl wills his typing ability to anyone who is dumb enough to take it. Greg Cameron wills his strong bones to Frank Mehalko so he will be able to play sports without breaking one of his bones. Carol Connah wills Barb Bender a tube of super glue so she can hold onto her batons instead of throwing them across the gym floor. Zoltan Connor wills to his sister his great typing ability (HA-HA-HA) my best trait, speed, 22 words per minute. Andrea Cook wills Charlene Adams the ability to lose count of how many laps she has already done out of 22 during practice. Jackie Crawford wills to Hannah the ability to keep dodging "Nosie" and to Dink the ability to handle 2 more years. Sue Crookshank wills to Angie Bearer and Melanie Greer the ability to be able to handle Vo-Tech next year and to be able to sit downtown for hours waiting for someone to come down. Chris DeYulis wills every article of her purple clothing to Sissy Connor. Robert Donaldson wills nothing to nobody, because he has nothing that anyone would want. Doug Edwards wills Rob Gibson Ears. Laura Frampton wills Crow the ability to get enough nerves to ask girls out and Kim McMullen her basketball uniform in hopes that she does better than she did. Tracy Frank wills herself to Pete Pagano "forever" and Cathy Krupa the back seat on the Vo-Tech bus. Sandra Hagens wills her typing ability to her sister Patti in hopes that she may someday be as good as her sister. Patty Henshaw wills her pleasure of attending school to those who wait for dismissal. Laura Hopfer wills the ability that she never had to get along with teachers to Terri Edwards in hopes that she don't get in as many arguments. Grace Hoskins wills to her brother Ralph her mental ability with hopes that he can figure out how to use it. Mary Jo Hulina, wills to her brother Ricky the ability to slide through all the classes that she slid through. Tina Jerome wills Cindy Taylor a job at the Jamesway Service Desk, Jackie Kelley wills Carole Leonard her remarkable ability of turning a 5-mile drive into a 40-mile journey, and to Cathy Lindrose the ability to find someone else's locker to open every morning. Doreen Kruper wills her fishing pole to Vick in hopes she catches a sucker. Eugene Kupchella wills ¾ of his estate and his lucky Adidas tennis shoes to his third cousin, Steve, on his mother's side and his left ear for the advancement of Science.

Cathy Lasinsky wills to Patty Koontz the ability to have as much patience in Miss Tomb's Advanced Science class as she had. Linda Link, wills to her 2 sisters Jean and Cindy the ability to do just whatever they want before school without saying anything to them. Verg Lloyd wills Beany Wray the ability to stop drifting about Roger and Marty Hegedus the ability to stop drifting about everything. Marianne Malcotti wills Jennifer, Patty, and Shelly a pocketful of change in hopes they spend it wisely and Lisa Schirato a great senior year. Ree Mallin wills Patty Patterson and Ruthie Nicklow lifelong transportation to school. Kathy Manculich wills to Valerie Byich anything of mine she wants. Lori Martin wills to her sister Sandy the ability to talk and chew gum in Mrs. Petrosky's room and never get caught. Debra Mehalko wills her basketball ability to her brother Frank and hopes that he does as great as she did. PJ Mehalko wills to Joy Crawford the ability to keep out of Nosie's (the one and only) phone, and to Jim Zeg the ability to pick and grin. Andrew Molinich wills Brian Akens any good part of the LTD II that he could find and also his driving ability. Theresa Natcher wills Vicki Stiles the back seat of the bus. Leslie O'Farrell wills to her brother Brian a 10-pound fish so that when he tells her he caught one, she might believe him. Shari Oldham wills to her sister Susie all the fun she had in her little "Honda," in hopes that Susie will have as much fun, as she did. Patricia Orevec wills to Jenny Adams and Linda Bridegum an airplane ticket to California for very special reasons. Cheryle Phillipson wills her brother to Lisa Schirato in hopes that she can handle him. Rhonda Rhoades wills to her brother Ronald the ability not to turn red as much as she did and to her sister Raeann to get her housework done on time and to get the car as much as she did. Tim Rhoades wills that after he makes it big he'll have 5 houses throughout the US and before he dies he'll give them to Bo Labash. Doreen Roberts wills all the crazy times at "the Corner" to anyone who wants them and hope they will have a good time like she did. Bill Schall painfully leaves his PBR to Jimmy Z. Tammy Settle wills Jean Hoffman the honor of taking care of Belsano in hopes she will do as good of a job as she has. Bill Shandor wills to Marty Ragley the ability to get nutty his senior year, in hopes that he will be as crazy as he was. Bob Simendinger wills his height and ability to play basketball to his brother Tim in hopes that he will put it to good use. Beth Stanich wills Sharon Divido the ability to pick an old lady's blueberries without getting caught and to her sister Bonnie the ability to go to the store with enough money. Sam Stiffler wills Bob Lonesky and Marty Hegedus the back seat on the bus. Annette Stiles wills Janet Smith the ability to get along with Mrs. Petrosky. Loreen Stiles wills her ability to flirt and drive at the same time to her sister and hopes she does it without wrecking the car. Margaret Stock wills her sister Cathy a year's supply of shorthand notebooks so that she can make it through doing shorthand homework. Connie Stoika wills her ability to bum rides home from the restaurant to anybody who likes trucks. Sam Stopchick wills his ability to sleep with his eyes open to all who need rest in school. Linda Thomas wills to Chris Woznak her ability to come up with "Great Ideas" when she needs them. She wills Paul Chari one flashlight as he won't be afraid to walk down "dark" alleys and to her cousin Dale Thomas she wills her ability to talk her way out of any situation — and hopes he does better than she did. Mary Jo Vermillion wills to Carol and George each a pair of roller skates to help them on those long walks home. Robin Walker wills her cousin Mark Tubo the ability to say what he wants at anytime and to anyone he feels and hope he is as successful as she was and to Barbie Bender the ability to cause trouble and to be able to talk her way out of it better than she could. Joan Witt wills Dee the ability to get around her parents the same way she does and to everyone who wants to have a good time, her times up at the "Corner". Ed Yobbagy wills his career of giving gum to all the girls to Jeff Hoover. Vicki Zanin wills her Dolly Parton poster to her sister Monica and her dimples to her sister Gina. Stephanie Zalinsky wills to Barbie Bender her baton poles and to Cathy Goodrich one certain guy.

Wesley Mash wills his brother, Glenn, the ability to stand school for two more years. Jed Wilson wills to her brother, Roy, the ability to sell fund raisers without losing the money. Terry Worthington wills his brother Ricky, the ability to acquire women in hopes that he will have as much fun as he did. Cindy Watson wills to "Susie Q" Oldham, her skiing ability in hopes that she can make it down "Mombo" in one piece. Susan Mesoras wills Judy, Lori, and Monica a few more years at Seven Springs, and Tommy B. two more years at Blacklick (Good Luck!)

May 25th 1989

A calm comes over the crowd, as our beloved president Bryan Adams steps up to the podium and updates the class of 79.

Bryan Adams has had a successful dance studio in up-state New York for the past 5 years. Susan Alexander made her trip to the big city of Johnstown. Dave Altimus finally reached his goal by completing a pass . . . it was with Marianne. Steve Ando had a room built around the steps by the Exxon. Denise Anderson was entered into the Miss America Pageant. Pete Barosky moved from upper Christoff Street to lower. Mike Bender's favorite words are still "yess officier." Judy Blickenderfer along with everyone else is still wondering why she got it for most bashful. Natalie (Squig) Boback now works aboard the Calypso with Jacque Cousteau. Mary Bober is still accounting for her lost time. Susan Boring 5 years ago married George Exciting. Tim Bracken is now box boy in charge of retail stock. John Busch became president of Anheuser Busch and changed the name to Busch-Anheuser. Bob Bzdyl changed his last name to a word with a vowel in it. Greg Cameron is still trying to organize a be proud of Cardiff day. Tom Capelli can now fly. Natalie Casper is now our second school nurse and can be seen giving aspirins for broken arms. Carol Connah can still be seen flowing down the river in her rubber raft. "Zoltan Conner, will Zoltan Connor please report to the office." Marc Conzo is now president of Sunoco Oil Corp. Andrea Cook is now head of the FRANKfurter Company. Jackie Crawford is still handing out extra ice-cream to her friends. Sue Crookshank is still hanging around. Chris Deyulis' first job encounter proved fatal. Robert Donaldson moved closer to town. Doug Edwards' picture was in Field and Stream for shooting the biggest deer story. Allen Farabaugh has just replaced Charlie in the Biology Dept. Karen Farabaugh has been married seven times already and still going strong. Laura Frampton is now happily married and busy with all her little "Krups." John Gibson has a TV show, "Galloping John Gibsons Bakeoff." Dave Hancharick still hasn't made it to the Ken Lantzy game. Laura Hopfer can still be seen waiting for Craig to come. Grace Hoskins is still getting her own way. Mary Jo Hulina has office practice tomorrow.

Tina Jerome worked her way up in Burger King Corp and is now the Second Assistant to the French Fry Maker. Jeff Johns changed his name to John Jeffreys. Jack Keilman took over the family business. Jackie Kelley is now the announcer for the Steelers when the P.A. system is out of order. Ron Kelly is now the doorman for D.J.'s. John "Crow" Kisic has last been seen flying over a dead deer on Cardiff road. Theresa Konsavich still doesn't know "vich" way to go. Mike Kovacic is now the star of "Willard II". Doreen Kruper can still be seen jumping around at the bus stop. Eugene Kupchella is a man outstanding in his field . . . He's a farmer. Joe Labash works for the Secret Service, his code name is B.O.Z.O. Rodger Lanzenderfer now has his own fleet of International Harvester jeeps. Cathy Lasinsky has just become the owner of D.J.'s pizza shop.. Linda Link is still trying to give directions to her house. Virginia Lloyd, yes there is a Santa Claus. Nathan Mack is a secret shareholder in the Mac truck company. Marianne Malcotti's "Why" can still be heard echoing in Mr. Dolge's room. Nancy Mallin recently became the National speed talking champion. Kathy Manculich is still interrupting people. Lori Martin can still be seen lighting the "Wicks" on candles. Wesley Mash finally became acquainted with figures. Deb Mehalko is now a migrant worker in Southern Florida, and spends her summers picking grapefruits. P.J. Mehalko made millions selling toothless combs to hairless people. Susan Mesoras can still be seen setting on her front porch swing. Andy Molinch met his fate on 219 during an electrical storm. Theresa Natcher can still be seen running through the jungle. Francis O'Farrell is now chief maintenance manager at the factory. Leslie O'Farrell got a bad case of the "RADICAL FLU". Shari Oldham still doesn't make sense. Patty Oravec still gets snowed in every winter. Cheryle Phillipson finally found out there is a way to go straight home from "Kathy's." Rhonda Rhoades' face is now permanently red. Timmy Rhodes has married Kate Jackson. Doreen Roberts was hired by a TV studio to sit in the audiences and laugh. It still makes everyone else laugh, too. Jefre Rummell was injured when someone asked him his name and thought he said Rumble. Bill Schall still can't reach the water fountain. Bernie Schilling still doesn't make any sense, "GOOD DEAL." Matt Scott can still be seen under a crowd. Brian Sekerak still hasn't stopped running after the last play. Rick Semetosky still has the natural urge to move South every winter. Kevin Sergent now misses as much work as he did school. Tammy Settle just had a dangerous weapon named after her . . . The big BERTHA gun. Donna Sherwood — There was a forest named after her. Bob Simendinger can be seen driving a LORI in Southern England. Beth Stanich is now married and has 10 kids, and lives on a farm. Bob Stephens changed his name to Ron and is now a news broadcaster. Annette Stiles finally got into the fads of the time. Loreen Stiles has finally found the missing "Link." Margaret Stock's hair has grown completly down her back and is now starting to grow up the other side. Connie Stoika — we're still waiting for Connie to stop talking. Sam Stopchick was taken away by little green men that came in the night. Susan Swartz now owns the Suez Canal. Linda Thomas is still coming up with Great Ideas. When she doesn't need them. Mary Jo Vermillion became a senator. Jeff Walker is still falling around. Cindy Watson has just become co-owner of Prave's Insurance Company. Dave Watson's surname is now Sir Dave Watson. Tom Williamson, Tim Williamson, Which is Which? Betty Jean Wilson is now Mrs. Craig Mack and president of the Jeddy Bear Corporation. Joan Witt is really not all that "Witty." Terry Worthington finally married . . . What's her name.?

Ed Yobbagy wrote a book. About at least one of his relatives did everything. Chris Younkin is now the happy owner of a chain of "Arby's" restaurants. Vicki Zanin when playing cards "Drew" a low card. Stephanie Zelinsky always hated being last in alphabetical order so her last name is now Alenisky.

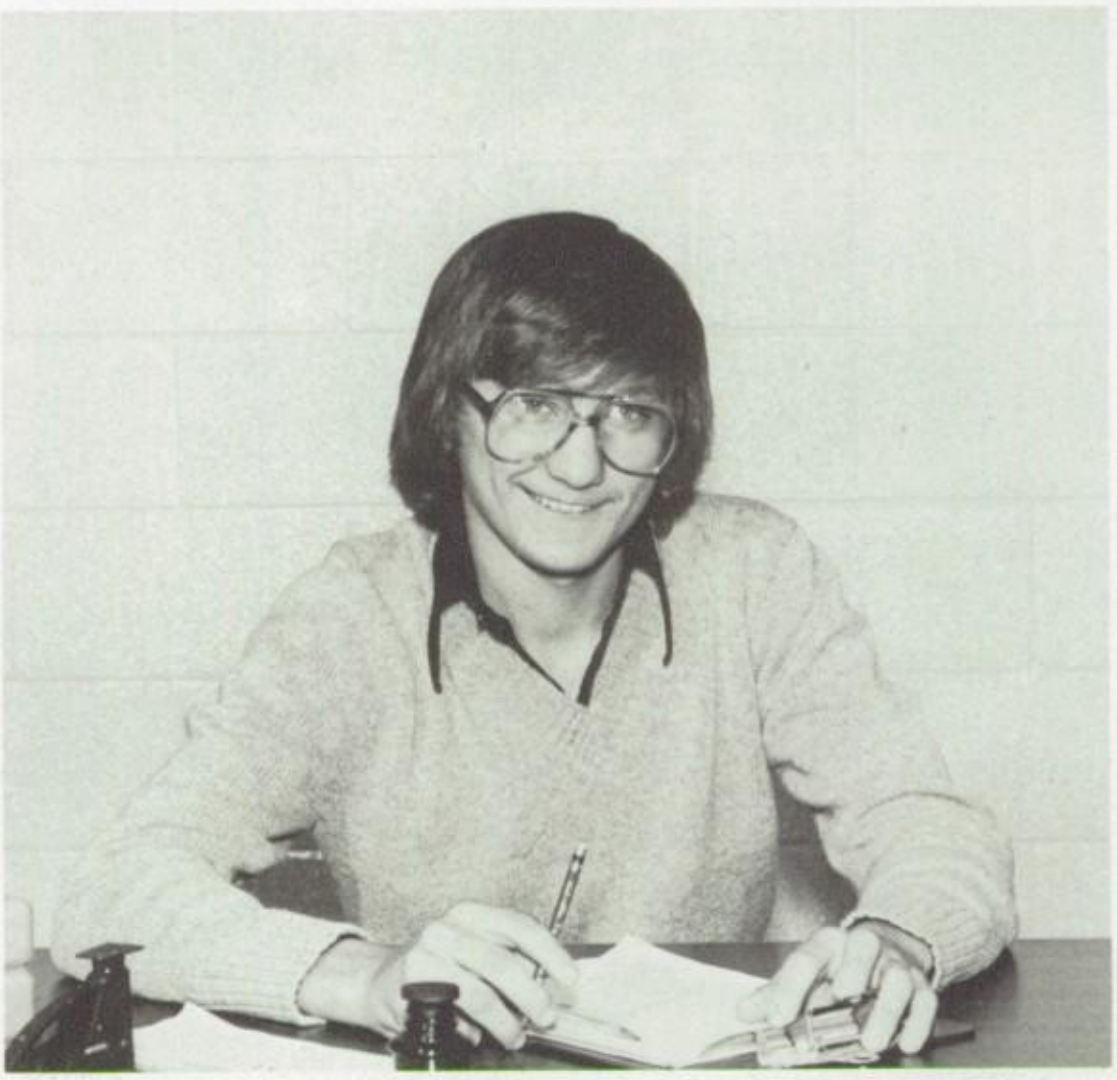
EDITOR'S MESSAGE



Eugene Kupchella

The people and events pictured in this edition of ECHO form a history of the school year 1978-1979. I hope they inspire fond memories for everyone as they look back upon their years in high school.

Many people are involved in putting together a yearbook. Few people realize the actual time and effort put in by the staff members and Mr. Kowalczyk. Each person involved deserves a thanks, for without them ECHO 79 would not be a success.
